

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Mark Breuer and Donna Mack exchanged their wedding vows on April 18, 1955, in Watertown, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Mark owned Breuer Aerial Crop Spraying and was a pilot for 37 years, and Donna was a Public Health Nurse for over 20 years; and,

Whereas, Mark and Donna are the parents of six children: Cynthia, Sandra, Nancy, Timothy, Sara, and Terry, and are now the grandparents of eight grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Mark and Donna enjoy their grandchildren's activities, going south for the winter, and dancing to big bands; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

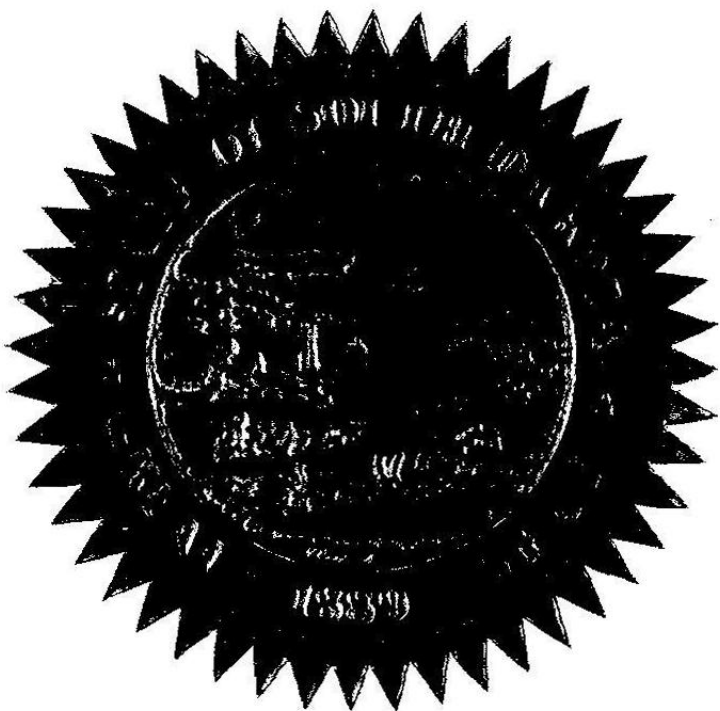

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens as their family hosts a gathering to celebrate the occasion and dancing to the Ken Rahn big band on July 2, 2005:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 2, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
